THE PLAINTIFFS' STEERING COMMITTEE'S REPLY TO THE "AFFILIATED DEFENDANTS" PARTIAL OPPOSITION

The Plaintiffs' Steering Committee responds to the "Partial Opposition by Affiliated Defendants to Plaintiffs' Steering Committee's Proposed Case Management Order," ("Partial Opposition") Dkt. No. 188, to clarify that neither the Chapter 11 Trustee for New England Compounding Pharmacy, Inc. ("NECC") nor Ameridose, LCC take any part in this Partial Opposition.

The Partial Opposition is styled as an opposition by "Affiliated Defendants." It does not define the term "Affiliated Defendants." As defined in the proposed case management order, "Affiliated Defendants" includes all defendants who are affiliated with NECC, and includes NECC and Ameridose.<sup>1</sup>

The Partial Opposition was filed by Mr. Fern via the ECF system as an Opposition to the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee's Motion for entry of Case Management Order filed by the Chapter 11 Trustee.<sup>2</sup> The submitting party has since been corrected by the Clerk,<sup>3</sup> but the

signature block is still signed, first, by Mr. Fern, as proposed counsel for the Chapter 11 Trustee.<sup>4</sup> Mr. Fern does not identify himself in the signature block as counsel for any other defendants.<sup>5</sup> And nowhere does the Partial Opposition make clear that it is not being filed on the Trustee's behalf (or Ameridose's behalf).

Lead Counsel has discussed this matter with both the Trustee and Mr. Fern. The Trustee has assured us that he does not join in the Partial Opposition. We appreciate that the docket entry has been modified to correct the filing parties. But given the ambiguity created by the use of the undefined term "Affiliated Defendants" and Mr. Fern's signature as proposed counsel for the Trustee, we respond out of an abundance of caution to clarify for the Court that neither the Trustee nor Ameridose join in the Partial Opposition.
